Portion :

1. Unseen Passage
2. Present Perfect Tense
3. L- Sailing Home

I. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow:

Asian elephants live in the tropical forests and grasslands of Southeast Asia. They are a little smaller than African elephants but can grow nine feet tall and weigh nearly six tons. That's heavier than two medium size cars!! Even baby elephants are on the heavier side, weighing 200 pounds. Given their size it's not a surprise that they are big on food. An Asian elephant's ideal meal includes roots, grass, fruits and bark. (Para- 1)

Asian elephants spend a lot of their time searching for food. In fact elephants may travel 50 miles a day to find food. Asian elephants also enjoy taking dips in water. To cool their backside the elephants would fill their trunks and spray it over themselves. (Para-2)

Q1. Where do the Asian elephants live?
